DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's arguments filed 6/24/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. See arguments below.

I. Rejection of claims 14,15,17 under 35 USC 102(b) as being anticipated by Narayanan et al (US '070) will be maintained for reason on record and reason as follows.

Applicant argues that Narayanan teaches that pre-emergent herbicides are taught only for use in the pre-emergence application and the post-emergent herbicides are taught only for the use in the post-emergence application. Applicant argues that Narayanan does not teach that if one skilled in the art makes a post-emergence herbicide, the herbicide is applied pre-emergently.

Examiner argues that Narayanan teaches that his compositions can be applied pre- and post- emergently. For this reason, Narayanan teachings meet the limitations of the instant claims. Examiner argues that nowhere in Narayanan can it be found that a post-emergent herbicide cannot be applied per-emergently. Applicant states that Narayanan clearly teaches this, but Applicant does not point to a location in Narayanan's specification for this teaching.

II. Rejection of claims 14,15,17 under 35 USC 102(b) as being anticipated by Sanders (US '447) will be maintained for reason on record and reason as follows. Similar arguments made with respect Narayanan can be formulated for Sanders. See arguments in I.

III. Claim 18 is allowable. Prior art does not teach the instant method of claim 18 comprising plants which are genetically modified.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
